INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

SOCIAL SCIENCE
CH:13 THE SOIL
CH: 14 OUR FORESTS AND WILD LIFE

Name: _____ Date:_____ Class: IV Sec: ___

I Fill in the blanks

1. Cutting down of trees in a large number is called _____
2. Soil is formed by the breaking up of _____
3. Planting are large number of trees is called _____
4. Red soil is known as _____
5. Farmers use _____ to increase the fertility of the soil.
6. We must protect our _____ resource like water, soil etc.
7. Black soil is formed by the rock made by _____.
8. We must plant trees to check _____.
9. The red soil is red colour due to the _____content in the soil.
10. _____ soil is used for making bricks.
11. Two steps to conserve soil _____ and _____.
12. _____ of the soil is different in different places.
13. Alluvial soil is found in the _____ plains of India.
14. _____ soil is called as cotton soil.
15. The Thar desert of Rajasthan and part of Punjab and Haryana are covered with _____ soil.
16. The mountain soil is suitable for _____.
17. The soil forms the top of layer of the _____.
18. There are _____types of forest in India.
19. The _____ forest are called Sunderbans .
20. Thorny forests are found in _____.
21. Teak, Sal, and Shisham trees are found in _____forest.
22. An elephant is killed for its _____.
23. The deltas of the Ganga and Brahmaputra in west Bengal have _____ forests.

24. Fire wood is used as a _____.

25. Forest provide _____ to wild life.

II Name the following

1. People who hunt and kill animal for their skins _____.
2. The animal famous in Jim Corbett national park_____.
3. A plant that cause soil erosion_____.
4. Large area of land covered with trees_____.
5. A tree that shed their leaves in the beginning of summer _____.
6. A tree that remain green throughout the year _____.
7. Cutting down of trees in the large number _____.
8. In danger of becoming extinct _____.
9. Forest area setup the government to protected wild life _____.
10. The marshy area of the Ganga Delta_____.
11. The most common mangrove trees in Sunderbans _____.
12. The national park which is famous for one horned Rhino_____.
13. It is used to make paint and varnish _____.
14. He stared the Chipko movement in 1974 _____.
15. The home of Asiatic lions_____.
16. The wild life sanctuary which is famous for elephants_____.
17. Two trees that are found in thorny forest _____ and _____.
18. The home of the famous Royal Bengal Tigers_____.
19. World forest day _____.

III Match the following

	A		B
1	Ever green forest	a	1974
2	Rose wood	b	Tropical forest
3	Deciduous forest	c	Moonson forest
4	Mangrove	d	Furniture
5	Chipko movement	e	Tidal forest