INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA
ENGLISH – WORKSHEET

Name:		Class: III	Sec:

GRAMMAR-CONJUNCTIONS- ‘and /but’

A conjunction is a word that used to connect or join two parts of a sentence.

Use of ‘and’	Simple Rule	Example
Joining words	Join two nouns (names of things/people).	I like tea and biscuits.
Joining actions	Join two actions that happen together .	We sang and danced at the party.
Joining sentences	Join two sentences that have similar ideas.	She is smart, and she is kind.
Showing difference	Join two sentences where the second idea is the opposite of the first.	The cat is cute, but it is noisy.
Showing the unexpected	Join two sentences where the second idea is a surprise.	I called him, but he did not answer.

I. Read each sentence and circle the correct conjunction (and or but) to complete it.

1.My dog likes to run (and / but) jump.

2.The sun is shining, (and / but) it is still cold outside.

3.I have a blue pen (and / but) a red pencil.

4.She wanted to eat pizza, (and / but) her mother made soup.

5.Rahul did his homework (and / but) then watched TV.

6.The turtle moves slowly (and / but) steadily.

7.I fell down, (and / but) I did not cry.

8.We went to the park (and / but) played for two hours.

9.This book is long, (and / but) it is very interesting.

10.The teacher is kind (and / but) helpful.

II. Write the correct conjunction (and or but) in the blanks to complete the sentence.

1.I brushed my teeth _____ I went to bed.

2.My shoes are old, _____ they are still comfortable.

3.We saw a monkey _____ a parrot at the zoo.

4.The ice cream was delicious, _____ it melted quickly.

5.He opened the door _____ walked inside.

III. Join the two small sentences into one sentence using either and or but.

1. I like milk. I do not like cheese.

---

2. My father went to the market. He bought vegetables.

---

3. The bell rang. The students ran outside.

4. The apple looks good. It tastes sour.

5.I went to the store. I forgot to buy milk.

6.She finished her homework. She decided to watch a movie.

7.The coffee was very hot. He still drank it quickly.

8.They played soccer all afternoon. They were exhausted by dinner.

9.My brother prefers to read science fiction. I enjoy historical novels.

10.The concert tickets were expensive. We decided to go anyway.

****