SECTION -A

I. Read the Passage carefully and answer the following questions.

In a peaceful village near the mountains, there lived a young boy namedRavi. Ravi was very curious and loved to explore nature. Every day after school, he would go on walks in the forest near his village. He loved to listen to the birds singing, watch the squirrels jumping from tree to tree,and admire the beautiful flowers.

One day, while walking, Ravi found a small bird lying on the ground. The bird had a broken wing and couldn't fly. Ravi felt sad for the little bird and decided to help it. He gently picked up the bird and took it home. Ravi's mother helped him make a cozy nest for the bird using a small box and soft cloth.

Ravi took care of the bird every day. He fed it grains and water and talked to it gently. After a few weeks, the bird's wing healed, and it started to flap its wings again. One sunny morning, Ravi took the bird outside. The bird looked at Ravi as if to say thank you, and then it flew away, high into the sky.Ravi watched the bird fly away, feeling happy that he was able to help it.He knew he would always remember this special moment.
