Story Writing (Pg 54)

I was walking on the beach when I saw something strange. Big footprints were in the sand. They had three toes. I followed them, and they led me to some trees. I saw a shiny scale on the ground. The footprints stopped there. Up in a tree, there was a big lizard with wings! It looked at me, then flew away into the sky. I stood there for a long time, holding the shiny scale, and wondering if anyone would ever believe my story.

Conversation (Pg 56)

Hunter 1: "Look at the footprints in the mud!"

Hunter 2: "Wow, they are big! What made them?"

Hunter 1: "I don't know. They're not from a bear."

Hunter 2: "This is weird. Let's go home."

Hunter 1: "No way! We have to find out what made them."

Hunter 2: "I have a bad feeling. I'm going back to our camp."

Hunter 1: "Fine. I'll go by myself!"
