

ENGLISH

A QUESTION OF TRUST (MCQ Test)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: X Sec: _____

	Choose the correct answer from the options given below under each questions:
1.	Horace Danby did the job of: (a) making toys (b) making locks (c) fixing leakages (d) making jewellery
2.	Where had the servant at Shotover Grange gone that afternoon? (a) to the cinema (b) to the market (c) to the park (d) to the mall
3.	Horace Danby was fond of: (a) reading rare and expensive books (b) listening to music (c) going to public parks (d) watching movies
4.	What did the young lady threaten to do? (a) to raise alarm (b) to let Sherry loose at him (c) to inform the police (d) to call the neighbours
5.	Where did Horace decide to make a theft this time? (a) Montex Grange (b) Shotover Grange (c) Westbury Grange (d) Mintunbury Grange
6.	What is the young lady's reality? (a) She owns the house (b) She too is a burglar (c) She is a house help (d) She is a tenant
7.	Who did Horace handover the jewels to? (a) to the house lady (b) to the cops (c) to burglar no. 2 (d) None of these
8.	How do you think was the smartest character? (a) The lady in red (b) Horace Danby (c) The owner's wife (d) None of these
9.	What if Horace had met the real owner instead of the young woman? a) He would have stolen the jewels. b) He would have been caught immediately. c) He would have left without stealing. d) He would have convinced the owner to help him.
10.	What lesson might the young woman reflect on after her successful deception of Horace? a) Effective planning leads to success. b) Deception can be a powerful tool. c) It's beneficial to work alone. d) Always have an escape plan.

11.	If Horace decided to give up stealing, what might he pursue as a new hobby? a) Gardening b) Painting c) Writing d) Collecting stamps
12.	What might Horace have done if he realised the young woman was deceiving him during the robbery? a) Confront her and leave b) Call the police himself c) Run away immediately d) Tie her up and continue the robbery
13.	What could Horace have done differently to avoid being caught? a) Worn his gloves the entire time b) Left the house immediately c) Stolen smaller items d) Brought a disguise
14.	Why do you think the young woman chose to deceive Horace instead of stealing the jewels herself? a) She feared the alarm system b) She wanted to test Horace c) She saw an easier opportunity d) She didn't know the combination
15.	How does the story 'A Question of Trust' emphasise the importance of learning from mistakes? a) Mistakes should be ignored b) Mistakes provide opportunities to grow c) Mistakes should be repeated d) Mistakes make life exciting
16.	Why honesty is considered the best policy in life? a) It guarantees wealth b) It ensures trust and respect c) It avoids hard work d) It makes life easy
17.	What does Horace's story teach us about the nature of deception? a) It is harmless b) It can lead to trust issues c) It is easy to detect d) It is always justified
18.	Why did Max bite his lips nervously? A) He feared the police B) He feared being killed by Ausable C) He feared that rivals were chasing him D) He feared being hit by a speeding car
19.	What does Horace's experience show about the consequences of crime? a) It sometimes pays off. b) It can be thrilling. c) It leads to negative outcomes. d) It gains admiration.
20.	Why is it important to think critically before trusting someone new? a) To make more friends b) To avoid being deceived c) To learn new things d) To have fun adventures