

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA

Social Science Worksheet

Chapter 09

Family and Community

Class : VI

Name:

Section:.....

1. What is the most ancient unit of any society?

- A. School B. Community C. Family D. Village

2. Which of these is NOT a value usually learned in a family?

- A. Ahimsa B. Tyāga C. Cheating D. Sevā

3. Why did Shalini's parents decide to buy clothes for her uncle's family during Onam, even though they had limited money?

- A. They were forced to do it
B. They wanted to show off
C. They believed in supporting family in times of need
D. They wanted to avoid going to the market again

4. What does Tenzing's story tell us about changing family roles?

- A. Only women should do household chores
B. Fathers cannot help in the kitchen
C. Both men and women can share responsibilities at home
D. Children should not be involved in family work

5. What lesson can we learn from the Bhil community's Halma tradition?

- A. We should wait for the government to solve problems
B. Helping the environment is not the community's job
C. Communities can solve problems by working together
D. Planting trees is a waste of time

6. Kamal Parmar taught children after work hours. What does this show about his attitude?

- A. He wanted to earn more money
B. He believed in helping others without expecting rewards
C. He wanted to open his own school
D. He was doing community service as punishment

7. Why do people in urban areas form Residents' Welfare Associations?

- A. To celebrate weddings
B. To compete with neighbours
C. To manage and maintain common facilities and solve local issues
D. To collect money for parties

8. Which of the following is not true about a community?

- A. A community never supports its members.
- B. Communities help in times of celebration and need.
- C. Community members often use shared resources.
- D. Communities work together for common goals.

9. Which statement is incorrect about the responsibilities of community members?

- A. Every member should contribute to the well-being of the community.
- B. Only leaders should do all the work in the community.
- C. Rules help in the smooth functioning of communities.
- D. People agree on how to use shared resources.

10. Which of the following statements is incorrect about a joint family?

- A. A joint family includes grandparents, uncles, and cousins.
- B. Everyone in a joint family lives in separate houses.
- C. A joint family has many generations living together.
- D. Members share responsibilities and duties.

Match the following: -

- | | |
|------------|------------------|
| 11. Dana | a) Service |
| 12. Tyaga | b) Non- violence |
| 13. Ahimsa | c) Care |
| 14. Seva | d) Giving |
| | e) Sacrifice |

III Observe the diagram carefully and answer the questions given below: -

Identify the type of family in the picture.

❖

b. What is a joint family?

❖

c. Mention some of the members of a joint family who share responsibilities and resources.

❖

d. Give an example of the values we should practice within our family.

❖

