

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA

Social Science Worksheet

Chapter 08
Unity in Diversity, or 'Many in the One'

Name:
Class : VI Section:.....

Match the Following

Column A

1. People of India Project
2. Chintz
3. Makar Sankranti
4. Panchatantra
5. Sari

Column B

- a) Popular printed cotton exported to Europe
- b) Harvest festival celebrated in January
- c) Directed by K.S. Singh
- d) Collection of ancient animal stories
- e) Common traditional Indian dress

Choose the correct option.

1. The unity in Indian food habits is mainly seen in the use of —
 - a) Similar utensils
 - b) Same staple ingredients
 - c) Same cooking methods
 - d) Imported products

Ans:.....

2. Why did European countries ban the import of Indian chintz?
 - a) It was too costly
 - b) It was harmful to wear
 - c) It reduced the sale of European cloth
 - d) It was used only in India

Ans:.....

3. The Mahabharata and Ramayana helped in —
 - a) Dividing communities
 - b) Creating cultural links across India
 - c) Making foreign trade stronger
 - d) Teaching new languages

Ans:.....

4. The 'People of India Project' was conducted by the:
 - a) National Archives of India

- b) Anthropological Survey of India
c) Indian Historical Society
d) Archaeological Survey of India

Ans:.....

5. Who said, "India offers unity in diversity"?
- a) Mahatma Gandhi
 - b) Jawaharlal Nehru
 - c) Vincent Smith
 - d) K.S. Singh

Ans:.....

6. Look at the picture of the stone relief of a woman wearing a sari from Vaiśhali, Bihar, and answer the question below.

What does this ancient stone relief tell us about Indian clothing traditions?

- a) The sari is a recent fashion trend in India.
- b) The sari has been worn in India for many centuries.
- c) Only queens and noblewomen wore saris in ancient India.
- d) The sari was brought to India from another country.

Ans:.....

True or false.

1. The Anthropological Survey of India conducted a survey of 4,635 communities.
2. Staple grains are the basic food for most Indians.
3. All regions of India wear the same type of sari.
4. England and France decided to ban the import of chintz from India.
5. Makara Sankranti marks the beginning of the harvest season.
6. All Indian literature is the same.
7. Chintz was popular in 17th century Europe.
8. The Mahabharata is a short story.
9. India have diverse festivals throughout the year.
10. Pongal an example of a harvest festival celebrated in some parts of India.

[illegible]